Multicultural Disability Advocacy Association of NSW

About MDAA

MDAA aims to promote, protect and secure the rights and interests of people from non-English speaking backgrounds with disability and their families and carers in NSW.

Our vision is a society where everyone, regardless of background or disability feels welcome, included and supported.

MDAA has offices in Harris Park, Newcastle, Wollongong and Griffith. MDAA also auspices City and Inner West Disability Advocacy, South East Advocacy and South East Sydney Advocacy.

What does MDAA do?

Individual Advocacy

MDAA has a team of Individual Advocates who work across NSW. They support people from diverse backgrounds with disability to speak up for their rights.

Systemic Advocacy

MDAA advocates for social justice. We work to improve legislation, policies and services for people from non-English speaking backgrounds with disability.

We create partnerships that strengthen the voice for justice and inclusion and raise awareness of the rights and needs of people from non-English speaking backgrounds with disability.

Capacity Development

We facilitate, support and maintain the Regional and Rural Disability Network, the Siblings Network and the NSW Network of Women with Disability.

These networks support people with disability to develop skills, make links and access resources to bring about local, regional and state-wide change.

Industry Development

We develop resources, provide information and advice. We also conduct research to create responsive, equitable and skilled services.

mdaa cultural abilities

We provide nationally recognised training and tailored consultation, specialising in cultural competency. mdaa cultural abilities operates on a fee for service basis.
