

“Want to be treated fairly at work?”

“Want your issues heard and acted upon?”

“Want to know more about your rights?”

“What services are available?”

City & Inner West Disability Advocacy promotes and protects the rights of people with disability, their families and carers living in the local government areas of

- Ashfield
- Canada Bay
- City of Sydney
- Leichhardt
- Marrickville

CIWDA will support you to make sure people respect your rights. An advocate will ‘stand beside’ you and support you to make your own decisions to get what you need. We support people to solve problems, for example, with housing, immigration, school, work, pensions or benefits and disability services.

Contact CIWDA:

Phone 02 9212 2020

Fax 02 9211 2606

Email ciwda@mdaa.org.au

Located in the office of
NSW Council for Intellectual Disability
Level 1, 418a Elizabeth Street, Surry Hills
(enter from Devonshire Street)

CIWDA is assisted by the Department of Families, Community Services and Indigenous Affairs

